

International Instrument was founded based on the market need for a reliable manufacturer for quality temp sensors. The Philosophy of starting this type of business was based on the following:-

1. Acquiring state of the art manufacturing equipments.
2. Getting the best manufacturing materials from the most reputable firms in the world
3. Adopting a stringent quality control system that ensures production with flawless operation, and long operating times within the operating limits.

To visit the site

<http://www.iii-eg.com/>